

It is God who alerts you, because he does not want you to get lost in Kal's traps, but Kal is not really bad, he just does his job and as Sarmad said he is the one who loves God the most and that is why his jealousy that no one does not Be truly ready, goes to Him.

When we get out of a trap we are already in a bigger one, like a Russian matryoshka. When Kal understands that he cannot deceive you with his trick, he prepares a better one and he himself sends you another teacher, who is responsible for unmasking the false teachers, but in reality he is also false.

Kal keeps the Maya with the energy of the trapped souls, some more than others, depending on their evolution, with the energy he gets from the majority, he can only create stars, but with your strength, he creates complete universes, so he doesn't want to lose you and prefer to negotiate, always giving you more.

The astral body as its name indicates is composed of stars, it is an emotional galaxy, with a consciousness equivalent to its size, the causal body is a whole mental universe and the soul is infinitely larger and yet it is a simple drop in the Ocean of Love that is God, knowing this, do not settle for less and can no longer deceive you.

In one of the many traps of Kal created in the Sub-astral, the soul is first taken to a region where it feels 10 times more consciousness and is led to believe that it is in the astral, after a long time it is taken to a region where expands his consciousness 100 times more and is made to believe that he is in the mental. After many eons he is led to believe that he comes to God feeling only a thousand times more than on the earthly plane when he really has not even left the sub-astral.

There are also traps above for the most demanding souls, some in the astral itself and for the more rebels there are traps in the mental, there they get much more, but they really remain within Kal's kingdom, feeding the Maya with their own energy, feeling conformity for having reached "nirvana" very far from the true ocean of Love.

If you look at the Sant Mat chart below, you will see the trap they offer, they say they will take you to Sat Purush, but they reality will take you only to the astral after consuming your energy for 4 lives, they sell you a Bhanwar Gupha that takes you just up to the astral, after many eons of time, will take you to one of its mental traps, as if it were the ocean of Love.

It would be enough not to continue confusing the etheric body with the astral body and we would save ourselves from many traps of Kal, then the sincerity in the search and not settle for anything less than the loss of the individuality that the ego so fears, because it is his death, but only in this way will you reach the Union, the awakening in Him, never outside or in front of Him, which is the desire of the self, but this is not possible, because only He is the only thing that really exists, everything else is imagined creature, it doesn't really exist outside of Him, we are his dream and waking up we are the Dreamer and the dreamed.

Detach yourself from this world that has already fulfilled its function, fly high and fast, do not stop in the astral or in the causal more than necessary, do not stop until you merge in Him, return to Kal everything that belongs to him with gratitude and respect, be free from all desire, from physical, emotional or mental things, if he feels your honesty, he will let you be contemplating with pride and admiration, cause you will become his Love and he will feel his mission accomplished, he was painfully separated himself from the Being to teach you in the non-being and has cooked you as the lover, to be consumed by the Beloved.
